

Rotary Club of Mitcham

District 9810 Victoria Australia

Lunch Meeting:

Deanne Ryall, Business Woman

Bulletin

Tues 20th April 2010

Dee Ryall is a successful business women in the health sector.

Growing up in Blackburn North, Dee gained her Higher School Certificate from Blackburn High School and completed her Certificate of Nursing at the Alfred Hospital in 1988. In 1991 she gained a Bachelor of Nursing from La Trobe University and has since added qualifications as a Registered Certified Auditor and completed 2 years of her MBA.

Dee was a registered nurse at both the Alfred and Box Hill Hospitals before becoming the Associate Unit Manager in the Orthopaedic and Surgical ward at Dandenong Hospital.

Establishing Health Systems Australia Pty Ltd in 1994, Dee became Managing Director of a successful company which merged in 2000 to become Quality Award Partners Pty Ltd (QAP). With QAP Dee is directly responsible for the growth and development of the business.

An active member of the local community, Dee is involved in a number of local organisations. Some of these include the Whitehorse Business Group and the Ringwood Chamber of Commerce. Last year Dee volunteered at the Ferntree Gully Bushfire Relief Centre after fires at Upwey.

Dee has over 25 years in the health industry and has run a successful small business for more than 15 years, and it is in these two areas that she hopes to make a useful contribution. She is also committed to working hard for the important local issues in Mitcham.

Preacher To His Congregation

"Anyone with needs to be prayed for, can come forward to the altar!"

Rangi got in line, and when it was his turn, the preacher asked:

"Rangi, what do you want me to pray about for you."

Rangi replied: "Preacher, I need you to pray for my hearing."

The preacher put one finger in Rangi's ear, and he placed the other hand on top of Rangi's head and prayed and prayed and prayed for Rangi.

After a few minutes, the Preacher removed his hands, stood back and asked,

"Rangi, how is your hearing now?"

Rangi replied, "I dunno Reverend . . . it's not until next Wednesday."

Colin's Corner

Patton staggered home very late after another evening with his drinking buddy, Paddy. He took off his shoes to avoid waking his wife, Kathleen.

He tiptoed as quietly as he could toward the stairs leading to their upstairs bedroom, but misjudged the bottom step. As he caught himself by grabbing the banister, his body swung around and he landed heavily on his rump. A whiskey bottle in each back pocket broke and made the landing especially painful.

Managing not to yell, Patton sprung up, pulled down his pants, and looked in the hall mirror to see that his butt cheeks were cut and bleeding. He managed to quietly find a full box of Band-Aids and began putting a Band-Aid as best he could on each place he saw blood.

He then hid the now almost empty Band-Aid box and shuffled and stumbled his way to bed.

In the morning, Patton woke up with searing pain in both his head and butt and Kathleen staring at him from across the room.

She said, 'You were drunk again last night weren't you?'

Patton said, 'Why you say such a mean thing?'

'Well,' Kathleen said, 'it could be the open front door, it could be the broken glass at the bottom of the stairs, it could be the drops of blood trailing through the house, it could be your bloodshot eyes, but mostly it is all those Band-Aids stuck on the hall mirror.'

Advance Australia Fair

*Australians all let us rejoice, for we are young and free
We've golden soil and wealth for toil, our home is girt by sea
Our land abounds in nature's gifts, of beauty rich and rare
In history's page let every stage, advance Australia fair
In joyful strains, then let us sing
Advance Australia fair*

Father Murphy walks into a pub in Donegal, and asks the first man he meets,
'Do you want to go to heaven?'

The man said, 'I do, Father.'

The priest said, 'Then stand over there against the wall.'

Then the priest asked the second man, 'Do you want to go to heaven?'

'Certainly, Father,' the man replied.

'Then stand over there against the wall,' said the priest.

Then Father Murphy walked up to O'Toole and asked, 'Do you want to go to heaven?'

O'Toole said, 'No, I don't Father.'

The priest said, 'I don't believe this. You mean to tell me that when you die you don't want to go to heaven?'

O'Toole said, 'Oh, when I die, yes. I thought you were getting a group together to go right now.'

Rotary Clubs and Membership

Rotary is a worldwide organisation of business and professional people that provides humanitarian service, encourages high ethical standards in all vocations and helps build goodwill and peace in the world. Approximately 1.2 million Rotarians belong to more than 32000 Rotary Clubs located in over 200 countries.

Clubs may differ from each other in demographic terms, meeting times and venues, but all have the same aims of making the world a better place, locally and internationally, while at the same time strengthening established friendships and creating new ones.

One of 51 clubs in Rotary District 9810, the Rotary Club of Mitcham has served its local community, and participated in many international projects since its charter in 1979. In these busy days, it is not so easy for young business and professional people to set aside a little bit of time to participate in Rotary functions. Those who do, are rewarded beyond belief. Support for Camp Quality - Kids living with Cancer, the International Polio Plus worldwide Polio eradication program, International Student Exchange, Rotary Youth Leadership Awards and many other fantastic opportunities exist. Giving immense satisfaction to all who are involved.

... of the things we think, say or do.

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

The Objects of Rotary

To encourage and foster the idea of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and in particular:

- first The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.
- second High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying by each Rotarian of this occupation as an opportunity to serve society.
- third The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian's personal, business and community life.
- fourth The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace, through the world fellowship of business and professional men and women united in the ideal of service.

Description of Rotary

Rotary is an organisation of Business and Professional persons, united world wide who provide humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations, and help build goodwill and peace in all the world.
